

My name is Wesley Newberry and I will be the middle school science teacher and have an eighth grade homeroom.

I graduated from the University of Alabama. I am married with one child, Grayson. I am excited to use my engineering and math background to bring science alive for our students with a STEM focus. I am also a Cross Country coach at McGill Toolen and look forward to helping develop more cross country activities on our school campus.