

Hello! My name is Jenna Strickland. I am from Mobile, and I have taught in both the Archdiocese of Mobile and the Diocese of Birmingham, AL (in Tuscaloosa). My husband, Daniel, and I are the proud parents of two boys. Russell is in the fourth grade, and Henry is in kindergarten this year at St. Dominic. We enjoy being a part of the St. Dominic family, especially when playing sports! Go Eagles.

I graduated from the University of South Alabama with a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education, and a master's degree in Reading Education. I also have an associate's degree in Fine Arts from Faulkner State Community College.

I am a practicing Catholic and attend Mass regularly with my family. I love watching Alabama and New Orleans Saints football. I also enjoy reading, drawing, swimming, dancing, and traveling.

I am entering into my 20th year as an educator. I taught kindergarten and first grade for 18 years, and I look forward to another year of teaching third grade. I love teaching and getting to know each of my students! I feel blessed to be at St. Dominic Catholic School.
