

My name is Lisa Ferlise. I am from Clanton, Alabama (Chilton County peaches). I am married to Milton Ferlise and have one daughter, Abby, who is a junior at McGill-Toolen. I have a BBA in Marketing from the University of Montevallo, and a MA in Elementary Education from UAB. I taught third and fourth grade in the public school system in Chilton County for eleven years. I taught third grade, and small group reading and math, at St. Martha's Catholic School in Sarasota, Florida for three years. Later, I taught second and third grade reading, in the Sarasota Public School System at Bay Haven School of Basics Plus. I feel blessed to be entering my sixth year at St. Dominic's. I have been fortunate to teach at my alma mater, my husband's alma mater, and my daughter's alma mater!!
